DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 42-68 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Schroeder et al (6,224,714).

In addition to reasons given in the previous Office Action, Schroeder et al teaches in column 13 and 14, vinyl monomer which are hydrophobic and in regard to dependent claims, includes cationic monomers as well. The vinyl monomer contains aliphatic groups (R_1, R_1', R_2, R_3), which means that it contains hydrophobic groups. In any case, R_4 is aryl and at least one of $R_6 - R_9$ is hydrophobic. In regard to claim 44, column, in regard to the formula: monomer b is a graft polymer of polysiloxane and a vinyl monomer in which Z is $-\text{COO}-$ and R_6 is the polysiloxane. Schroeder et al discloses more than one ethylenically unsaturated or vinyl monomer.

2. Contrary to Applicant's assertion, Schroeder indeed discloses vinyl monomers that are hydrophobic. It is also urged that Schroeder does not disclose improved slough and linting characteristics. However since Schroeder et al uses the same polysiloxane polymer as a binder in tissue paper, would reasonably expect Schroeder et al's polymer to exhibit the same or substantially the same or equivalent lint and slough characteristics as in the product of the presently claimed invention.

3. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

Art Unit: 1731

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
